Recipes

All desserts and appetizers must be thoroughly cooked. The judging chefs also require printed recipes.

Nuts are permitted. The HMAAC will not be held responsible for inaccurate labeling of items containing nuts or derivatives

Recipes or a list of ingredients for entry must be emailed to festival@harrisonmuseum.com before the judging or typed/neatly written on a separate piece of paper and submitted with the entry.

On the day contest, judges will ask caterers/bakers to discuss ingredients in the order used with measurements, and directions, including times, temperatures, and number of servings. If your recipe is not your own invention, please give credit to its source.

For the participants on August 27, 2023:

Bring small/bite-sized (no bigger than 1 inch, if possible) portions of your dessert and/or appetizer entry. We will provide a disposable container for your samples. We suggest you bring a knife and plastic wrap if you plan on cutting your entries after drop-off. Small cups/plates will be provided for you to place your samples into.
